

NATIONAL SEX OFFENDER PUBLIC REGISTRY

Major Project Points

1. A single focal point for citizens to search public sex offender information nationwide.
2. The project builds on existing state technical capabilities.
3. States and local law enforcement and criminal justice agencies retain control over their data and search processes.
4. The decentralized approach is superior to a central data warehouse for a public access project.